WHAT IS 2-1-1?

Who do you call when someone you love is a victim of domestic violence? When you or someone you know can't find affordable health care? When you need child care? When a friend needs a support group for a drug addiction? When someone you know needs assistance with rent or a utility bill?

WHEN YOU NEED ANSWERS

2-1-1 is an easy to remember phone number connecting people with free information on available community services. When you dial 2-1-1, a trained professional will listen to your situation and suggest sources of help using one of the largest databases of health and human services in Virginia. Nonprofit organizations and federal, state and local government agencies are included in the database and you can access services in your community and statewide.

DIAL 2-1-1 FOR COMMUNITY SERVICES

Whether you need help or want to provide help, 2-1-1 is the fast, free and confidential way to locate hundreds of services in your community. When you dial 2-1-1, you will be connected to a trained professional, who can provide referrals to health and human services, including:

- Basic human needs: food banks, shelters, rent or utility assistance
- Physical and mental health resources: Medicaid, Medicare, pre-natal care, children's health insurance programs, crisis intervention, support groups, counseling, alcohol and drug rehabilitation
- Work initiatives: educational and vocational training programs, English as a second language classes, job training, General Educational Development (GED) preparation, financial and transportation assistance
- Support for seniors and those with me, respite care, home health care, transportation and recreation disabilities: Area Agencies on Aging, independent living centers, adult day care, meals at home, respite care, home health care, transportation and recreation
- Support for children, youth and families: After-school programs, tutoring, mentorship programs, family resource centers, protective services, counseling, early childhood learning programs, child care referral centers, and recreation
